What we show here

- 10 of the accounts Daimon runs with us.
- Half strong, half weak.
- So you see the real average, not just the best part.

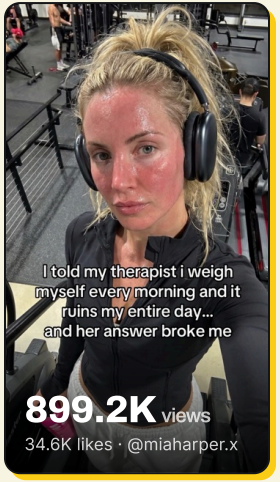

THE CONTENT

Simple slideshows, AI avatars.

Daimon makes the posts.

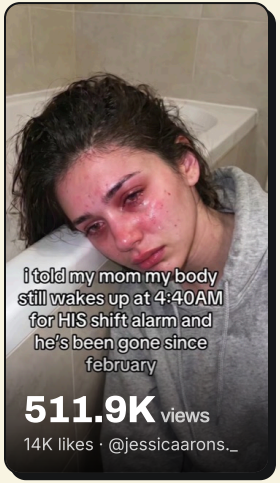

We give them the accounts and do the posting. As many posts a day as they want.

HOW IT WORKS

Real phones, real accounts.

01 — ACCOUNTS

Real phones

Every account runs on its own real phone. No emulators. Daimon started small, saw the numbers, then bought more.

02 — POSTING

Post as much as you want

Daimon sends the content, we post it. About 9 slideshows a day on these 10 accounts, up to 23 on big days. No daily limit.

03 — CONTROL

The phones are yours

Open any phone you rent right in your browser. Scroll, reply to comments, share posts. Ask us to turn this on.

WHAT IT COSTS

12 cents per 1,000 views.

One TikTok account is $70 a month. That's the full price: phone, account and unlimited posting.

COST PER 1,000 VIEWS

all 10 accounts

$0.12

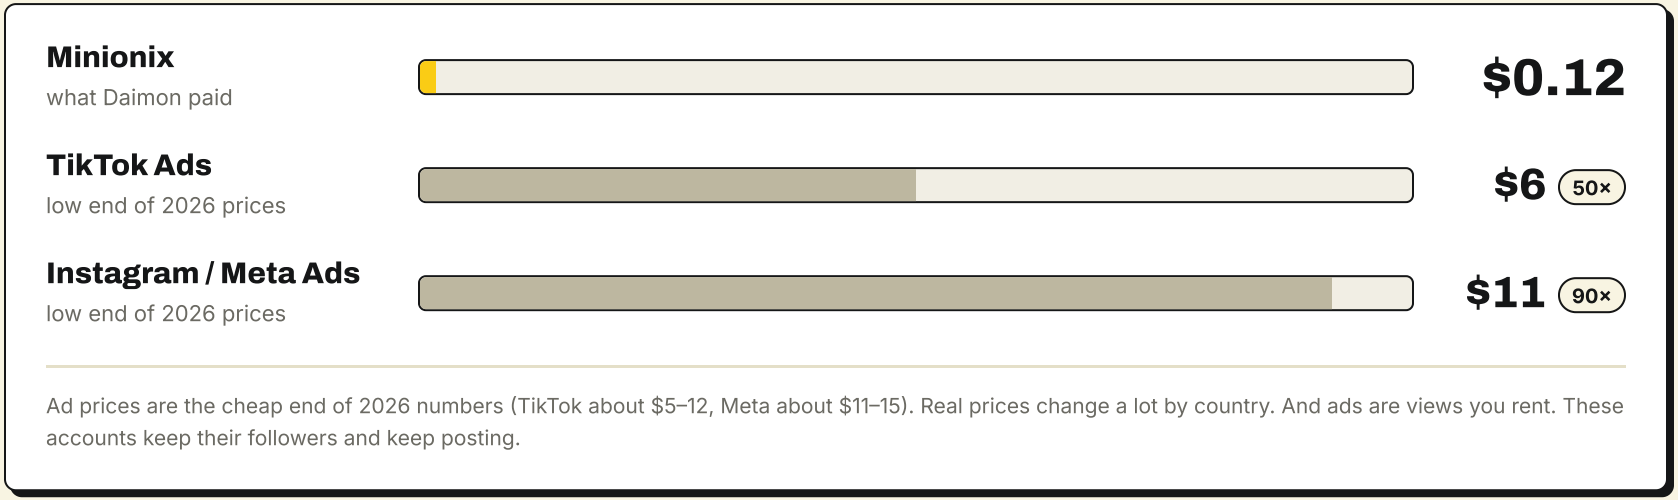

Even if you only count the 5 weak accounts that were stopped, it's still about 63 cents.

Months paid, all accounts	14 × $70 = $980
Views they got	7,878,482
Cost per 1,000 views	$0.12
Only the 5 stopped accounts	≈ $0.63

VERSUS ADS

The same views, bought as ads.

Ads cost dollars per 1,000 views. Daimon paid twelve cents.

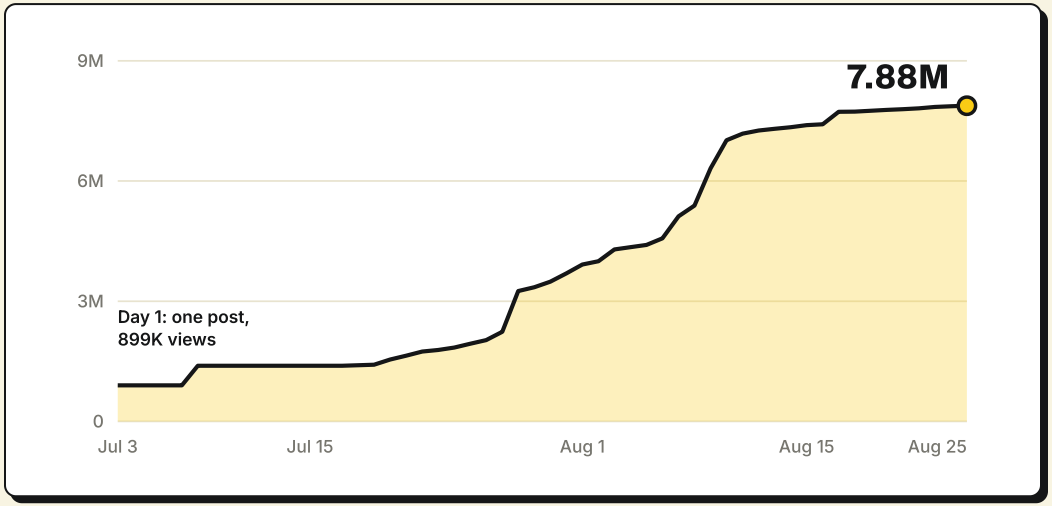

Ad prices are the cheap end of 2026 numbers (TikTok about $5–12, Meta about $11–15). Real prices change a lot by country. And ads are views you rent. These accounts keep their followers and keep posting.

THE RESULT

Views kept stacking up.

Total views across all 10 accounts, day by day. Every jump is one post taking off.

62 posts over 10K views — about one a day

25 posts over 50K

16 posts over 100K — one every 3–4 days

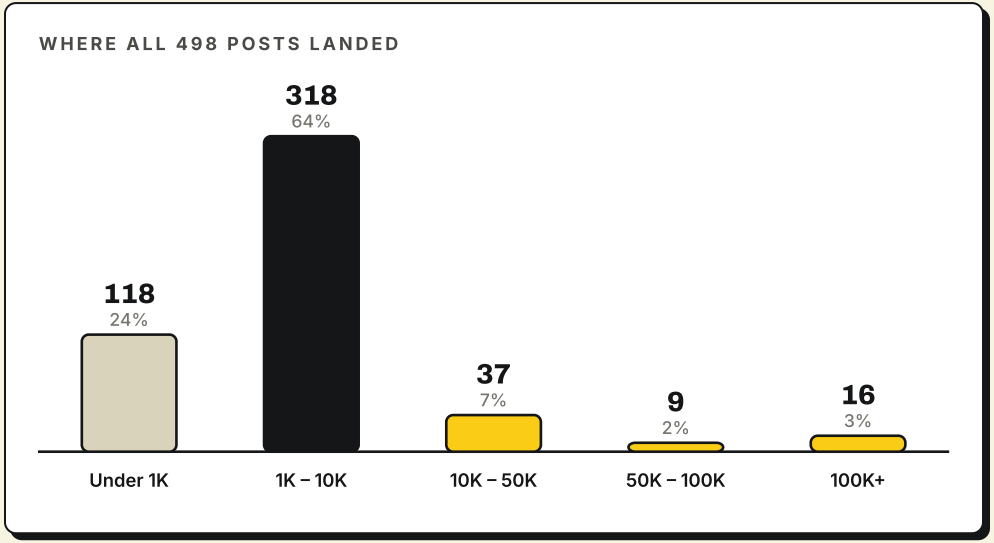

4 posts over 500K

THE HONEST PART

Half the posts got under 4,100 views.

Most posts are normal.

- Average post: 15,820 views.
- Middle post: 4,076 views.
- The top 10 posts brought more than half of all views.
- So we don't promise every post goes viral. We post enough that the big ones keep coming. Here, one landed about every day.

ACCOUNT BY ACCOUNT

Keep the winners, drop the rest.

Same content, same weeks, very different results. Daimon stopped the slow ones and kept scaling the good ones.

5,698

middle views per post on the 5 accounts they kept. These brought 91% of all views.

1,306

middle views per post on the 5 they stopped. Real views, just not worth the time.

We rank by the middle post, not the average, so one lucky post can't fake it. "Last 10 posts" is what we watch to decide what to stop.
